PROFILE

Curious and self-driven Full Stack Developer who enjoys turning complex problems into clean, intuitive web experiences. I take ownership of projects from concept to deployment, think carefully about user experience, and care deeply about writing maintainable code. I thrive in environments where I can keep learning, collaborate with others, and ship things that actually make a difference.

PROJECTS

Planora – Event Management Platform

Tech Stack: Next.js, Express.js, Prisma, PostgreSQL

- Built a multi-role event platform where Admins, Hosts, and Users each have dedicated dashboards.
- Integrated Stripe payments, real-time UI updates, and SSR with Next.js 15 for a fast, production-ready experience.
